

Baroque period music!!!!!!

- ☉ Baroque music had originated in Italy around the stages of 1200-1300!
- ☉ The main baroque instrument was the fugue.
- ☉ In Holland and Germany the composer there tended to use the organ and voice mainly
- ☉ A person who had influence most people was Arcangelo Corelli.
- ☉ His music had spread around Europe.
- ☉ Baroque music was used for ballroom dancing.
- ☉ It had become fashionable during their time.
- ☉ A baroque period performance was a choir of 300-400 musicians.
- ☉ It contained a rich visual background.
- ☉ Arcangelo Corelli (a famous composer) who's style of music on the violin became famous, so famous that he had played for the queen of Switzerland.
- ☉ The music had traveled from Italy to Germany
- ☉ It was not until 1600s when baroque music came to England.
- ☉ There was also a famous English composer: 1659-1695-Henry PURCELL.
- ☉ Here are some famous composers and musicians:
 - 1653-1713 - Arcangelo CORELLI - Rome
 - 1659-1695 - Henry PURCELL - England
 - 1660-1725 - Alessandro SCARLATTI (father) - Italy
 - 1660-1741 - Johann Joseph Fux - Austria
 - 1668-1733 - Francois COUPERIN ("the Great") - France
 - 1670-1747 - Giovanni Battista Bononcini - Italy
 - 1671-1751 - Tomaso ALBINONI - Italy
 - 1678-1741 - Antonio VIVALDI - Venice
 - 1679-1745 - Jan Dismas ZELENKA - Prague, Dresden
 - 1680-1762 - Francesco GEMINIANI - Italy, England
 - 1681-1767 - Georg Philipp TELEMANN - Germany
 - 1683-1764 - Jean Philippe RAMEAU - France
 - 1685-1757 - George Frideric HANDEL - Germany, England
 - 1685-1750 - Johann Sebastian BACH - south Germany
 - 1685-1757 - Domenico SCARLATTI (son) - Italy, Spain
 - 1692-1766 - Unico Willem van Wassenaer: the mystery composer - Holland
 - 1712-1786 - John STANLEY - England