

NAPLES

The city I have decided to organise a trip is to Naples because I think this city has lots of things to do, to see and you can wander around without a map without being lost. So, have you ever longed to visit Naples, this is your chance! I am sure you will have unforgettable experience.

So get ready to your dream trip, I am sure that you will like it before I finish this piece of writing.

When to go: The best time to visit Naples is April to June because the weather is sunny without being hot. However going there is not cheap, although compared with the UK.

' The sun is warm, the sky is clear, the waves are dancing fast and bright, blue isles and snowing mountains wear the purple moon's transparent might...'
