

①
The particle can have energy eigenfunctions that are eigenstates of L_z because \hat{A} and \hat{L}_z commute for a potential with no angular dependence. (See exercise 30 parts a and b in unit 8, which deals with precisely this point.)